SECNAV INSTRUCTION 5430.28C

From: Secretary of the Navy

Subj: Delegation of authority related to supply, distribution, and disposal of Navy and Marine Corps material

Ref: (a) SECNAVINST 5430.7K of 9 Sep 1975

1. Purpose. To delegate authority for the development and promulgation of Department-wide policy governing the supply, distribution, and disposal of Navy and Marine Corps material.
2. Cancellation. SECNAV Instruction 5430.28B of 15 May 1967 is hereby superseded.
3. Background. Responsibility for Department-wide policy supervision of all matters related to supply, distribution, and disposal of material is assigned to the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Installations and Logistics) by reference (a). This includes the development, promulgation, review, and appraisal of policies governing the cataloging, provisioning, inventory management, distribution, materials handling, traffic, transportation, packaging, preservation, receipt, storage, issue, and disposal of material.
4. Delegation. The Chief of Naval Operations, acting for and under the policy guidance of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Installations and Logistics), is hereby delegated authority for the development and promulgation of policies governing the supply, distribution, and disposal of Navy material. The Commandant of the Marine Corps, acting for and under the policy guidance of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Installations and Logistics), is hereby delegated authority for the development and promulgation of policies governing the supply, distribution, and disposal of Marine Corps material.
5. Assignments for Assistance. The Chief of Naval Operations and the Commandant of the Marine Corps will provide the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Installations and Logistics) with assistance in the performance of his Department-wide responsibility for policy supervision of all matters related to supply, distribution, and disposal of material.

1 DEC 1976

6. Departmental Coordination. The Chief of Naval Operations and the Commandant of the Marine Corps will coordinate in the preparation of Departmental directives or Departmental positions for the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Installations and Logistics) on matters of common application to both Navy and Marine Corps material.
